

RJ ORGANIZATIONS

TEXAS-BASED RJ ORGANIZATIONS:

The Afiya Center, a North Texas Reproductive Justice organization working to decrease HIV among women and end the cycle of disease disparities and life-long poverty.

Esperanza Center, advocates for those wounded by domination and inequality — women, people of color, queer people, the working class and poor.

Mamas of Color Rising, a collective of working class and poor mothers of color based in and around Austin, TX.

Mama Sana/Vibrant Woman, a women's health project of Mamas of Color Rising, presents community-based participatory research that calls into question Austin's reputation as a family-friendly city for the majority of its residents.

Mujeres Mercado, committed to creating marketplaces and cultural spaces that support the growth of women-led alternative economies.

Nuestro Tejas, joint campaign of National Latina Institute for Reproductive Health and the Center for Reproductive Justice advocating for Latinas in the Rio Grande Valley.

South Texans for RJ, a Rio Grande Valley based grassroots organization working towards Reproductive Justice in South Texas.

Allgo, a statewide queer people of color organization, that envisions a just and equitable society that celebrates and nurtures vibrant queer people of color communities.

NATIONAL RJ

ORGANIZATIONS:

Black Women for Wellness, committed to the health and well-being of Black women and girls through health education, empowerment and advocacy.

Black Women's Health Imperative, changing Black women's lives through advocacy and public policy, health education, research and leadership development, the Imperative works to advance health equity and social justice for Black women across the lifespan.

Forward Together, an organization representing and supporting Asian communities in the struggle for reproductive rights and freedom

In Our Own Voice: National Black Women's Reproductive Justice

Agenda, a national organizational initiative designed to amplify and lift up the voices of Black women at the national and regional levels in our ongoing fight to secure Reproductive Justice for all women and girls.

Law Students for Reproductive Justice, a student organization that trains and mobilizes law students and new lawyers across the country to foster legal expertise and support for the realization of Reproductive Justice.

National Latina Institute for Reproductive Health, the only national Reproductive Justice organization working to ensure reproductive health and justice for Latinas.

New Voices Pittsburgh, promotes the complete health and well-being of Black women and girls in the Greater Pittsburgh Region.

SisterLove, eradicates the adverse impact of HIV/AIDS & other reproductive health challenges upon women & their families through education, prevention, support & human rights advocacy in the United States & around the world.

SisterSong, a collective of women of color and Native organizations working together for reproductive justice.

SPARK Reproductive Justice NOW, an organization that collaborates with individuals, organizations and communities to build and sustain a powerful Reproductive Justice movement in Georgia and the South.

COLOR, serves as a sisterhood of Latinas dedicated to building a movement of Latinas, their families and allies through leadership development, organizing and advocacy to create opportunity and achieve reproductive justice.

URGE (Unite for Reproductive & Gender Equity), an organization that mobilizes the diverse, upcoming generation of leaders to promote and protect reproductive rights, sexual health & gender justice trains and mobilizes law students and new lawyers across the country to foster legal expertise and support for the realization of Reproductive Justice.